Abstract of CN 1252296 (A)

Six-treasure health tea is a green health beverage prepared with six kinds of wild plants including Ilex, Laoyingcha, honeysuckle, white chrysanthemum, Rites burejense root and Rubus saavissimus and through scientific process. It contains trace elements and macro elements essential for human body and can promote children's intelligence growth, strengthen body's physiological function, delay senility and prevent some cardiac and cerebral vascular diseases caused by magnesium deficiency. Its rich selenium content and trace element combination makes it capable of preventing cancer and curing tissue damage. It is a cheap health beverage suitable for all people.
